We are

Three TEN Seven Design, LLC is a small web design company in Bluffton, South Carolina owned and operated by Tristan and Jacqueline Rineer. Between them, the couple have knowledge in many web programming languages, web and graphic design, visual communications, software and customer relations.

We create

We make beautiful, professional and affordable web interfaces designed to get your business noticed. We will create a unique design tailored to your needs and desires for your business. We have experience with many programs and coding languages and can help you choose the perfect package and plan for putting your site together the way you want it.

You need a web site

A web site is an important investment for your business in today's market place. It is important for people to know that you are open for business, and welcome it with a web site that is functional and has a fresh, attention-grabbing design.

Let us take care of helping your business grow on the web! Contact us today!

Our Process

Brainstorm

We listen to your ideas, take notes and brainstorm. Your unique ideas combined with our expertise make your project one-of-a-kind.

Plan

In the planning stage we figure out how your project needs to work based on what you want to accomplish. Functionality is key and should never be overlooked.

Build

With plans in place it's time to go to work making your dream a reality. It's important that we build quickly and accurately so that you have the project ready on time.

Test

Testing is a necessary part of the process. We want to make certain that everything is correct but most of all, that you are happy with the finished product before
